

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 3.

BUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

(Including Postage):

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as sec

cond-class matter.

WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1207 BROADWAY, between first and first six, New York.

BROOLLYN - 359 Firston Sr. Halilem -

News Department, 150 East 125tm etc.; Ad. stranger who was walking around to see vertisements at 207 East 11578 St.

the sights, and he stopped to inquire the PHILADELPHIA, FA.—Lengar Buildies, 112 cause. He was a middle aged man, hav-SOUTH STREET. WASHINGTON-610 14TH ST. LONDON OFFICE-BY COCKEPUB ST., TRAFAL-

The Evening World Prints Associated Press News.

TO-MORROW WE CELEBRATE.

THE EVENING WORLD will ebserve the these things. Hurry up, now, and I'll Glorious Fourth by appearing in its cus. | wait," tomary Independence Day garb of red, disappeared like a flash, and when he white and blue-Uncle Sam's tricolor. returned he had cannon firecrackers, Not that the paper will be any more patriotic than usual. It is always Roman candles and rockets, on the top notch of devotion to the country's best interests, which are the led the good man as he rubbed his hands Interests of the people. But like all together. "We'll make Fourth of July truly good citizens, it feels the fitness of get up and dust with these things!" a little extra demonstration on the reddest dried on his cheeks and the pucker unof red-letter days.

Somewhere it was stated the other day twisted itself from his mouth as he struck that it was becoming necessary to pay men to celebrate the Fourth of July. This was a wide assumption, based later there was a bang which rattled the on a militia company's demand for parade- windows, and this was speedily followed It is not a truth of any by something else. The fire-cracker had general application. The spirit of the gone off in the midst of the rockets and day is present just as much with the man candies, and now balls of bine, orange, who takes a quiet holiday in woods or by red and green commenced to scoot up and sea as with the other man who, in full down and around, and four rockets went uniform, tramps the parement to the w-h-i-z-z-whoosh! and jumped and circled and cavorted around until the street music of a band.

It is Independence Day, and every man is free in his choice of celebration. Do it ran, and the street car horses reared up noisily or do it quietly. But celebrate,

Alliance politics will begin with a picnie in West Virginia at which portions of Ohio and Penusylvania will be represented. By means of Senator PEFFER and other new brooms the leaders expect to sweep at least two States into line

Poor Many Stringgerren! "I die to but that was all. A detective who came make him suffer," she wrote, and took up was given the case, but in less than her own poor little life. There was no one | two minutes he reported : "No clue." to tell her that the wretch capable of taking advantage of the innocence of her sixteen years was utterly incapable of feeling for her sorrowful end.

A pretty Long Island City widow turned her lover away from the house, where guests, minister and all awaited the wedding. This because he came intoxicated to the ceremony. Another case of a slip between the cup and the lip.

Cashier Smith, of a Fort Worth bank, has exploited the proper way to quench the blackmailer. It consists in holding the would-be extortionist at the point of a loaded pistol until a policeman can be

A determined Vermont mother, with a two-barnelled shotgun, induced a band of gypsies to give back her boy, whom they had stolen. A mother's warm love was well backed by cold lead in this instance.

The marketable value of " sure things" is likely to experience a boom. A Supefor Court Judge has affirmed the validity, as a consideration, of a reliable pointer on stock quotations.

Cal., gives an indication of the extent to which wine making is carried on in the Sunset State. A ring lost a year ago last September Prof. Tyler has taught Greek at Amberst College was found in the street yesterday, where it had lain undisturbed for nearly two years. This is a reflection on the Street-Cleaning Department. up to the very top of a chimney 225 feet high. They made the perilous ascent by means of ladders Williamsburg man of forty-four, with a wife of twenty-two, is jealous of his nineteen year-old son. He should have married a woman old enough to be the boy's mother.

The Treasury statement is out in the new form adopted by the Department. The people would like to see it in a form to show an honest balance to the Govern-

A Pittsburg bride-elect stole jewelry to get her trousseau. She was detected and arrested soon enough to prevent a mar- You's riage which must have been a failure.

EDWARD HALLINGER, the Jersey City wife-murderer, is not anxious to be executed now. The anxiety has shifted to the public.

Our Giants won't begin their Western campaign as first-placers, but nobody disputes that they are tip-toppers.

Do not forget the fund for the sick

Danger of Agreeing. [From the New York Weekly 1] Clara—That handsome stranger appears to have taken quite a shine to you, Maud.

Maud-Y-e-s, I can't imagine why. Clara-Nor I. Maud-l'll never speak to you again, so

At the Ball.

Jack-What a lovely girl Miss Blondwig is. A heavenly, flower-like facel Tom-Yes, very flour-like. Look at my coat-sleeve. I danced the last waltz with her. Correct Diagnosis.

Prom the New York Weshly. Doctor-Good morning, Mr. Lover. What can I do for you ? Mr. Lover-I-I called, sir, to-to ask for the hand of-of your daughter.

Humph! Appetite good?"

and through the beautiful shenandosh Valley to the natural wonders of the Bine Monatains of the Virginius, leaving New York at 7.40 A. M. on Wednesdur, July 8, will afford a rare opportunity of viewing nature tinged with listory, at the minimum cost of $25, which covers all the expenses of the trip. Himerary "Now very."
"How is your pulse?"
"Yory rapid when—when I am with her.
"Froubled with papplisation?"
"Awfully, when I think of her."
"Take my daughter. You'll soon be cured.
Ten dollars, please." ist Agent Pennsylvania Radiroad Co., 849

Being Good to a Boy.

The boys over in Brooklyn have been holding Fourth of July ever since the first sign of "Fireworks" was hung out in June. Last evening a broth of a lad on Atlantic avenue, near Court, worked for ten minutes to shoot off a firecracker which had no pop to it, and when satisfied that he had been swindled be sat down on the curbstone and howled in the most dismal manner The howling of even a dozen kids

The boy also chuckled. The tenrs

M. QUAD.

EPOTLETS.

Prince George of Greece is addicted to lemon los

Sommer bearders have taken the Alliance's place

Oh, Clara, see that great black cloud:

Where will it go, I wonder?

To which the fair girl made reply:

I think it's going to tunder.

 Limits Revald.

Island City is his and no one clee's.

The Eagle will acream as usual to-morrow

He-It's an easy way to study tireck.

The way to secure a bolle is with a ring.

She-Why are you gazing so at Prince George?

A striker that belongs to no union-lightning.

WORLDLINGS.

The fact that 500,000 gallons of wine were ;

ently bought in one lot in Santa Clara County fastened to the outside of the chimner, and did the dangerous feat just as a "dare."

The Duke of Athol, the chieftain of the Murray of Scotland, adheres to the antique kits of the Highlands Once a year begives a ball, to which he chieftains of all the neighboring class come

The United States contribute $75,000,000 a year

o the support of the Church. Within the centur

VACRANT VERSES.

She may be so frail and delecate that, leaning arm, d break your neck in sympathy to keep more with a bairpin than a man with all make the smartest statesmen act like and nated floor, in argue without reason, on some notion in ser nead, man with sound intelligence will wish that it was dead.

—Exchange.

My Lady's Hair.

It is not dark like raven night Nor is it fair; Nor is it hurnished with the light That bronsed the hair Of those fair Saxon maids of old, Of whom the minnesingers hold

And song o the connectingers told.

And song o the event inspired flow
So long ago;

He Envied It.

It bath a sweet, hypnotic smell
Of flowers rate.
That were about my brain a spell—
This increased stars:
I worshipped—but the charm for me lise vanished. In a dream lose
My ladys hair coiled tenderly Upon a chair!—Betwie Pres Press.

pretty girl with a borrid end Spoke to a herrid man and said. "A cold a horrid thing,"
And then to cough began
- Fometimes I think in fact I fear "—
This said between sach cough
- "That by this horrid on's some day
I will be carried of
The story that is not
The story that is not
- "Whiteside Hera
- "Whiteside Hera
- "Whiteside Hera
- "Whiteside Hera

Gettysburg, Luray and Natural Bridge

The Pennsylvania Railread Company's fo days' tour over the battlefield of Gettysbu and through the beautiful Shenandoah Vali

-Whiteelde Merald.

in's tronsors till she beats him blac out of harm; il wield her little slipper, though it num-lad in plaids and accompanied by their pipers,

A rain-beau-One not afraid of wet weather.

The Poor Babies Reed Them in Their Battle with Suffering.

by stationer or grocer, and that was early Be One of Many and Send Your Mite to the Free Doctor Fund.

> Nell Nelson's Specimen Picture of How the Poor Babes Suffer.

tans of that neighborhood, but this boy's lomentations reached the ears of a	THE SUBSCRIPTIONS:	× .
stranger who was waiking around to see the sights, and he stopped to inquire the cause. He was a middle-aged mau, hav-	Lemaville and Nashville Mrs. J. Q. A. A Scotch Carpenter	10.00
ing a big heart and all modern conven-	A Friend	5.00 5.00
iences, and when he had got down to the	Edwin, Emmis and Ethel.	1.60
root of the trouble he said:	B. D	1.00
"Never you mind. Here's a quarter,	Tommis	6,00 and you go and buy firecrackers and	Employees of Gordon & Dilworth	2.25 have a good time. I've been a boy my-	M. G. R. Clayton E. Holder	1.00
self, and I know how a boy feels about	Junkei Bros	2.50
these things. Hurry up, now, and I'll	Runkel Bros. employees	2.50
wait,"	A l'ather	-80
The howler grabbed the quarter and	Samuel Gumpert & Co	6.78
disappeared like a flash, and when he	Albert	5.00
returned he had cannon firecrackers,	tirace, Edith and Helen	1.00
Roman candles and rockets.	Eddie Sella	5:00
"That's it-that's the checker!" chuck-	Norman	1.00
led the good man as he rubbed his hands	F. Wittenson and a construction of the constru	.50 together. "We'll make Fourth of July	A. Beller & Co	8.00
	Employees of A. Beller & Co	5.00
get up and dust with these things!"	A Cigar Box	2.05

DEATH OF A BABY.

Nell Nelson Meets with a Particularly Sad Case in Madison Street. A Salvation Army girl wrote the note from wretched home in a Madison street teno-nent. A bottle of bluing, a state pencil and a iece of paper torn from a starch package omprised her writing ionterial. The not was brief, but legible. It ran: "For the ove of God send a free physician to a dying

There was the address, but nothing more. The Salvation Army girl and the "Dying the utter helplessness of her distress and the and pawed the air. For one long minute her gasping for breath.

the elsehant was loose. Then the performance came to an end, the smoke floated away and no one could tell just what had happened. The small boy had gone pattering down the avenue at the top of his speed, and the fatherly stranger was nowhere to be found. They picked collation; she smoothed the dirty pillow, too hard to rest the tired head; she brushed away the files that tortured it, and every now and then changed the position of the frail bedy. There was a motherliness about the interest she bestowed upon the little creature interest she bestowed upon the little creature of the maintenance of the school for girls in Fifty-eighth street, where slang is very much discouraged and punished by fines. Every word means the surrender of a penny. Last year the surrender of a penny. Last year the saver indired the cost of ponderous Thomas Costigan, Assistant Clerk penderous Thomas Costigan, up his white plug hat with the crown torn through the movement thus to be inaugu- off a necktie which was still on fire a away the flies that tortured it, and every now struction. button or two and a weary-looking cane, touch of which had a soothing influence; nothing could have been more tender than the war she pressed the slender wrists to her countants in the office of the commissione en mere touching than her baby talk.

She called it "little lamb," abused herself for having gone away the day before, and besought "our Reavenly Pather to have him in a Brooklyn stable. To the anxious in-

When the doctor came, he sighed as h danced about the comfortless place, and he the contortiess place, and he of down on the greasy floor beside the tantmany Ball has been directed from the brown, almost brindle-red, leather, made on raised the delicate lids to see the street wigwam as too plebelan, and to have the desired line as the street wigwam as too plebelan, and to have the desired line as the street wigwam as too plebelan, and to have the desired line as the street wigwam as too plebelan, and to have the street wig

The girl in the blue dress asked what he Nothing.

Why, what is the trouble?" s been starved to death and it is now too late a feed it. There is no strength left. If you know where the mother is send for her at

Then he filled out a blank form and placed Aldermen Oct. I next. under a teacup on the table, saying: fifty-five years, and is now a hearty man of may need this in an hour. If you want clothes or other assistance send to this ad-Two young Milwaukee women recently climbed dress!" handing her a card.

The "blank form" was needed before th doctor or the baby's mother reached home. The girl in the blue dress tenderly raised the little form from the hollow bed, the soiled dllows and coverings were carried away, the drawer was turned over, and the reverse ide, covered with a clean pillow case, made bler for the unfortunate child who had been allowed to starve to death. One ounce of milk will make a substantial there has been 150,000,000 copies of the Bible meal for a healthy child, and yet this hapless printed in America, and the Church has 6,696 misdram, had actually died of starvation.

For $16 the undertaker agreed to bury the mains. He would furnish the coffin and a carriage for the mother, and carry both to e cemetery in Weehawken (?). The woman, who has been a cook in an uptown restauant, could not raise that amount if it wer he price of immortality. She had $3 and the idertaker had a heart, and by the tin ese lines meet your eyes the second chap er of a short, sad life will have ended. Here is a chance for some one to liquidate he debt be owes humanity. The bill must be cald by the Sick Bables' Fund or one of its outributors. And if kings and queens were not debroned a patition would be made to have the its) in the Blue Dress decorated for her loving devotion to the "Dying Baby,"

NELL NELSON.

From Brothers. I am only four years old. I wish to help the poor sick bables. Inclosed find $1 from me and 50 cents from little brother Ralph. CLAYTON E. HOLDER, 475 East One Hundred and Seventy-seventh

With Best Wishes. n the Editor: Find inclosed $1 for Sick Bables' Fund. My best wishes go along with it for the success of your noble scheme in relieving the Americans of the future. A Scotch Carpental. A Ten-Dollar Check.

Inclosed pleased find my check for $10. whi h I wish you would devote to the Sici Baotes Fund. Mss. J. Q. A.

A Supplementary List. The following are more employees of Gordon & Dilworth whose names were not in-$20 for the sick babies. To-day's list

They Gave an Entertainment.

We send to you this little amount, $1, which we received from a little parior entertainment. It is not very large, but we know that every little helps. With much sympathy for the poor little habes.

EDWIN, EMMIE and ETHEL. Tommie's Bank.

To the Editor I am a little boy eleven months old, so my papa and mamma tell me, but I guess I must w older than that for I feel like a great big chappie. I am so sorry for the little bo-pables and the little girl bables that I sen you some money cut of my bank. So please take the $5 inclosed and do the best you can for them. Tommin.

Employer and Employees.

subscribed as follows: Runkel Brothers, at a slight expense. $2.50; employees of same, $2.50; a father, 50 cents.

Three Sisters,

I inclose #5 to aid in the good work the Free Corps of Physicians is doing, in the name of three little sisters who wish all the poor children were as well and happy as themselves.
GRACE, EDITH and HELES.

A Good Box. To the Editor

Inclosed find $2.05, subscribed by A CIGAR BOX.

Please place inclosed check for $25 to the credit of Free Doctors' Fund and oblige, "LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE." More Kind Employees, Employees of Samuel Compert & Co., 92 Seecker street, to-day send #5.75, collected

Here's a Big Lift.

rom the following: Samuel Gumperi, Samuel Klauber, #1 each; D. Sachs, P. Mayer, H. Thran, Gus Moos, Minnie Levy, S. Weiner, Suin Warshawkey, A. P. Dargue, M. Havidson, William H. Mither, John Marks, Ed Ashbeim, Simon Ricks, Alex Sachs, Mr. Haller, "Countrach," 5 cents each

Since Farmer Rusk secured control of the Weather Bureau he has shown his partiality for the bucolle residents of Long Island by turning an east wind on Hunter's Point which has wafted the intolerable odors of was in an uproar. Men shouted, boys Haby" were seen half an hour after the re- that source of smells over Manhattan Island. relpt of the crude message, one weeping in greatly to the discomfort of urban residents,

I am informed that the Washington Bridge The child was cradled in a bureau drawer. Commission, which has remained in control of quent the senside resorts are the sweet girls and the girl on her knees beside it was vainly the structure for two years after its comple- who go in the surf seven days in the year and rying to be of some service. She dried her tion, is now anxious to turn the bridge over swim, actually swim, faced in tight corsets vn hot tears from the small white face; she to the Park Department. I suppose, of course, hafed the tiny hands and feet and pressed the Commissioners will give an account of hem between her palms to restore the cir-that shed a gentle melancholy upon the soul.

Nothing could have been sweeter than the way she present her soft, round cheek against the child's, the magnetic of the Court, Carson G. Archibald.

penderous Thomas Costigan, Assistant Clerk applicant Clvil Court, examine an applicant for a free summons. The burly assistant is a splendid foil for the stately Clerk would allow, and, going into the slums, found twenty poor girls of their own are whom I am told that one of the most efficient ac-lips to feel the pulse, and nothing could have of Accounts is Examiner W. J. Rell. Mr. Bell ts a lawyer as well as an accountant. A cat with a tail two inches long is the pe tling news to his mother. I notice that latterly the machinery of tazing eyes. Then he sighed again, said "Ah betaken themselves to the marble palace on 256 Mott street, and the Astor Ledging-Fifth avenue.

Everybody knows the veteran Clerk of the and girls are given rewards of merit which "The trouble," he said, drawing out his of the old Municipal Police in the Ninteenth have steady employment, the pu-ok and pencil, "is starvation. The child Ward, and was legislated out of effect in 1857 pils are advised to purchase wearestablished. Capt. Twomey will celebrate cloak or pair of trousers being seventy-five the thirty-fourth anniversary of his employ- tickets. Shirts, dresses, aprons and under-

> Accounted For. [From Puck.]

"My health is getting shaky," said the popular old gentleman.
That's because it has been drunk so much, returned his crony.

Fortifying Himself. [From Brooklyn Life.] Featherstone—I have just learned that Prettyman has recently joined two new clubs. t seems strange for him, doesn't it? Ringway-Not at all. Haven't you heard be news?

Featherstone-What news ! Ringway-lie is going to get married.

Strawberry and Vanilla. [From Pack.]
Tom—It always strikes me that your flancee

s a very cold girl. Jack-My dear fellow, if you paid for the ce-cream she eats you'd think she had every reason to be cold.

A Total Long. [From Judge.] Hotel Clerk-You know the artist that was Hotel Clerk-Yes; but they were not framed. An Invulnerable Stomach.

"Wal," began the Missouri man, "that thar speaker's stomach, knocking him through the blank side of the barn.

"My heavens," cried the tourist, "the poor follow muss surely be killed outright."

"Nope, answered the kaises codly, "I don't reskou it reteled him. When a man's stummlick kin stand. Mizury whisky for thirty years, it—Helio! here he is how;" for the poor thirty years, it—Helio! here he is how;" for the poor thirty years, it—Helio! here he is how;" for the continued the Missouri man, resentence.

"As I was saying, that thirty includes the formal of the future?" like—Yes, and always will be.

THE WORLD: FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 3, 1891.

Delight the Gentler Sex.

Hemstitching for Silk Dresses-Dearth of Good Needlewomen-Colored Silk Petticoats Are Much Worn-The Latest Style of Dress Trimming.

four rows of hemstitching. You can buy regthe Editor Included please and check for $5, to help that the control of the state of the s along the fund for the relief of the babies, dress may be made up and worked afterwards and Ted Peiper. Miss Cogulan is taking lessons lumbus 4, Cincinnati 1; St. Louis 15, Louis and buckled in leather belts, they invited to a dolls' tea in the school-room. Each guest was waited upon and entertained by a pupil, and no words can tell the enjoyment experienced by the untutored maidens. This is proof positive of some of the philosophy of evil.

New York modistes find it absolutely im to his tender care." She fed it warm milk a duries of a five-year-old boy as to the cause, care it a time, and asked again and again—a waggish stableman replied that "some bad of needlework has played have with sewing, "What is it, dear? What does buby want?" boy caught the cat and hammered its tail in." and the women who can sew are as scarce as Mayor Gleason wants it understood that Long as the rolling blue eyes were raised implor. The little chap ran nome to impart the starmashing a finger or making the wall gap.

The shoe par excellence is a very dark

House for Homeless Children, 201 West Thirty-second street, the rarged little boys Hoard of Aldermen as Capt. Twomey, but few pass as currency among the local grocers, know where he got his title. He was Captain bakers and butchers. In case the parents olitan Police District was log apparel, the price of a tacket ent in the Clerk's office of the Board of garments can be bought with forty good conduct or good lesson merits. By this system the school disciplines itself and punishments pretty Washington girl had bet her pinare almost unknown. The cost of the garments is covered by a special fund, the articles of clothing amounting to something like $2,000 a year.

Three tiny ruffles, gathered or pleated, is the newest style of dress trimming.

A great many colored silk petticoats as en at the Summer resorts under carefully lifted afternoon teflets of crepe, India silk and bengaline of opera tints. The novelty is not pretty. A hand-laundered white muslin etticoat can have no substitute worthy of

The closing of the Industrial schools of

New York this week throws into the jaws of moral and physical death no less than 30,000 of the poorest children on the Ameriun continent. All the schools under the direction of the Children's Aid Society are as well managed as those under the Board of Education, with added physical advantages. The little creatures are received to arms; unch of good soup, sweet milk, fresh bread in 440 and killed himself. I am afraid we and butter, with occasional portinge and shall have to charge up his bill to profit and sprup, is provided every noon, and there are oss.

Proprietor—Why, didn't he leave a lot of bles lure the little waifs to wash and clean. Room is not only abundant out the surroundings are always wholesome and as much superior to the homes from which they come as the palace is to the hovel. It is a matter of serious regret that there i not in all New York a school, a half or a Whang! The mule planted both feet in the church where the poor children could go to braker's stomach, knocking him through the during the long Summer days to escape the Highest of all in Leavening Power .- Latest U. S. Gov't Food Report.

Retire from the Stage.

in Early Autumn.

which she was seated in the masculine manner, | Clarkson. Championship standings up to to according to the requirements of her play, day: Miss Coghian says that she did not enjoy herself. She lost the stirrups and had a melancholy time of it. She managed to reach her home all right, however, and as she is in the country nobedy was the wiser. The New Park Theatre, by the bye, was to have been opened with a police play called "The Patrol," pened with a police play called "The Patrol," and very boisterous announcements of that fact were made. "The Patrol," however, appears to have been shelved with great facility. McKee Rankin is to retire from the stage very shortly. He has a few dates held for next season, and after the fulfilment of these it is said that he will retire to the seclusion of a playwright. McKee Rankin has had a vig-

Me Your Wife," a play adapted from the same oreign source that is responsible for "Jane," he piece with which the Madison Square re-

E. J. Henley has been engaged to play the eading pars in a new play entitled "The diack Masque," which is booked for two weeks it the Union Square Theatre, beginning Aug. 4. The play is said to possess some original scenes. One of these is a tournamout in which William Muldeon will appear as master of athletics and arms. Frederick H. Jiles is the manager.

Prof. Herrmann has returned to these climes and looks as acreeably saturaine and as profitably Mephistophelian as ever. The necromancer is sojourning on Long Island. He is very pleased at the arrangements by which Diacy will appear at his house next who go in the surf seven days in the year and swim, actually swim, laced in tight corsets and buckled in leather belts.

There is a delightful and very exclusive school for girls in Fifty-eighth street, where slang is very much discouraged.

Fig. McWade a vang actor who was with.

A number of Rialto actors who had a chance o go to the West Indies are chuckling now occause they didn't avail themselves of their apportanties. Very bad business is reported, and it is said that a certain company can't get back to New York.

. . . The admirable scene in Pain's "Siege ourls" at Manhattan Beach, was made ver Paris "at Manhattan Beach, was made very accurately from a map. To people who know Paris the scene is wonderfully vivid. The Madelehe, the Place de la Concorde, the Champs Elysses, and the Tulleries are distinctly visible.

"The Gondollers" does not seem to be quite as dead as a doornall, after all. Last week it was sung in Buffulo by the Carleton Opera Company, with Carleton as the Duke of Plaza-Toro, and in St. Louis by the Casino Opera Company, with Marietta Nash and Jennie Reiffarth in the cast.

Jeffreys-Lewis and her husband, Harry Mainhall, are now members of the stock company now in St. Faul, Minn. A play salled 'Cheles and Aunts" is being pre-sented there this week.

CARTERET'S PRETTY MASCOT. During the recent races in this city of the Dumblane Club, Carteret, owned by Will Hayes, of Warrenten, V. Will Haves, of Warrenton, Va., won two cups and the plaudits of a grand stand full of beiles and beaux, says the Wash ington Star. In each of these races a oney on Carteret, and Mr. Hayes called

After the races here Mr. Haves went to the newspaper man's wife, according to a similar meeting at Brookline, near Borton, and Carteret was entered for last Wednesday's race. Mr. Hayes being over weight he was compelled to employ a jockey, and when the race was finished Carteret was fifth in a string of eight and drywood away down in the rooks.

dropped away down in the pools.
Suffice it to say, the young lady was not there to bet on her favorite, but Mr. Hayes had not forgotten.
Immediately after the race he wrote to her a tale of woe and begged of her to make at once with her own hands a rib-bon bow of his colors (black and white) and send it for him to wear in Saturday's and send it for him to wear in Saturday's race, in which he would be trained down to ride. She responded on the spot, built the bow, and sent it under a special delivery stamp to Boston and awaited results most anxiously. The race was run, sults most anxiously. The race was ru and Sunday morning she received a te gram from Mr. Hayes to this effe-Carteret wins the race. Paid 40 to 1, He wore the mystic mascot bow, course, and therein lies the charm. mascot bow. of

A Life Preserver. [From the Philipdelphia Time.] " Doctor, you saved my life," "I never attended you."

" No, but when I was sick I sent for you and u were out of the city. I wouldn't have any-e else, so I got well. Phewl (From the Boston Transcript.)

Arthur-I'm sure Mr. Storer spoke very flat-

Kate-Of course. Whatever anybody says fyou, Arthur, cannot be otherwise than flat-Losing a Grand Opportunity.

eringly of me.

(From Judge 1)
"Henderson has no sentiment," said Marie "Don't you think he has?" "No. 1 refused to marry him, and he hasn't dunged madis into dissipation, or done any-hing to show that he is a blighted being."

(From Harper's Baser.) "Well, I am getting so that I can make nyself misunderstood perfectly." Proved by a Proverb

[From Judge.]
Mrs. Snooper (indicating the smallest man in the baseball team)—That must be the ottcher. Snooper—Why sot Mrs. Snooper—I can tell by his ears.
Snooper—Indeed?
Mrs. Snooper—Yes; little pitchers have great ears, you know.

Fads. Fashions and Fancies That Report that McKee Rankin Is to Giants Start for the West in Illustrated Witticisms Culled from Modest Second Place.

> Plans of Well-Known Stars to Shine Middle States Regatta Prizes-Gossip of Fighters.

Miss Rose Coghian was to have salled for New York was not in it yesterday, owing to Europe last Wednesday, but has renounced the rain at Philadelphis, and Chicago just her designs upon a European trip for the gake galloped into first place with a 20 to 5 vicof attending to various details in her coming tory over Cleveland. The Anson colts made production of "Dorothy's Dilemma," with 18 safe hits, with a total of 26, off Viau's de-Slik dresses, particularly those made of India or China slik and intended for general wear, are very pretty trimmed with three or four rows of hemstitching. You can buy regularly started with Mrs. Thomas Pittsburg 1, Cincinnati 0. In the American in horse-riding, and the other night, after dark. Ville 7. The Brooklyn game was a splendid she ventured forth upon a noble steed, upon eleven-inning contest, won on a lucky hit by

If Paddy Smith, of Brooklyn, or Billy Dacey

A sweeping challenge has been sent out to Jack Dempsey, George La Bianche, the Marine, or any other middle-weight puglist in America, by Jack Slavib, brother of Frank P. Slavib, who has just knocked out Billy Smith.

The Newark Yacht Club will be well represented in the annual cruise or the New York Yacht Racing Association. The Emblem Athletic Club, of Yorkville, will hold their outing and athletic games this year on Labor Day at Whitestone, L. I.

All four of the Eastern clubs, Boston, Brook lyn, New York and Philadelphia, took the same train West last night.

To-morrow will be a great day in this vicin-ity in athletic and yachting circles. The Newark Yacht Club will hold its tenth annual open sweepstakes race on Monday Aug. 24.

Instead of the Manhattan A. C. baseball team playing the Yenkers A. C. at Yonkers to-morrow, the game will be played on Manhattan Field on the morning of July 4 at 10.30, and the New York A. C. will play their Cathedral A. C. game in the morning at the Polo Grounds. Then the Manhattans and New Yorks will battle for victory at Manhattan Field at 4.30 r. M. This game will be of special interest, as both teams have 500 per cent. to their credit, being tied for second place in the A. A. U. race. Ladies are admitted free to the grounds and grand stand at Manhattan Field.

The Scottish-American Athletic Club is making extensive preparations for its picuic and games, which will be held to-morrow at Caledonia Park, Jersey City Helghts.

The prizes will be distributed as follows at the annual regatta of the Middle States Regatta Association, which takes place July 10 and 11 on the Passaic River at Newark, N. J.; Each member of a winning crew in all races receives a solid gold medal; every club represented by a winning crew receives a handsome hand-embroidered silk banner.

The Club represented by a crew winning the senior four-oared shell race will receive the Newark Stonday Call challenge cup. (Must be won three times to become the absolute owner.) The Club represented by a crew winning the intermediate cight-oared shell race will become the absolute owner of the magnificent New York Herald cup. The medals offered by this Association are superior to any ever given for a like event. They are solid 14-carat gold, warranted; are die medals, designed with the emblem of the Association. For the quarter-mile single-scull race a handsome diamond negati is offered. quarter-mile single-scull race a handso dinmond medal is offered.

There was some nice racing off Oyster Bay resterday, under the auspices of the Seawan-naka-Corinthian Yacht Club. The Mineola ook first prize in the 40-foot class and the Sameless proved the winner of the raters.

SHE WANTED THE NEWS.

Newspaper Man Who Should Take Tips from His Wife. " If there's any important news," said

you come home and tell me about it."

And the next morning, as he was walking home, he hastily reviewed the news of the night to put himself in slape.
"Wake up." he said, when he got "Wake up," he said, when he got there. "There's war with Italy on." "About what?" she asked as she yawned and stretched her arms, "Why, you know, in that New Orleans affair Oh, that old thing," she interrupted. What else? "Well, at one of the Harrison meetings

Lyman Gage has refused"-'Who cares. Give me some news."
'Chauncey Depew has been indicted "That railroad accident, of course."
"Well, then, the Princess"—
"A European scandal. There's one

The newspaper man sighed, thought a The newspaper man sighed, thought a moment, and then said:

"I don't think of anything more, except a little local paragraph about Mrs. Brown having left her husband."

"Mrs. Brown! No! You don't mean it!" and she sat up in bed, "Why, she only lives a few blocks from here. I see only lives a rew blocks from here. I see her go by nearly every day. What do you suppose is the matter? Will either of them apply for a divorce?"

"I don't know," he said. 'There isn't much doubt about it."

She looked at him scornfully for a movement and then and nent and then said "And you pretend to get out a news-paper. Eah!"

She Stood by Him. Mrs. Prentice—How do you always manage to have such delicious beef? Mrs. Binthyre—I select a good, honest outcher and then stand by him. Shutting Him Up.

[Erom Le Patriote.] Our friend Cadet was buttonholed on the loulevard by a bore, who said to him : "You don't look at all well this morning. I dare say not ; I have been lying insensi le for eight hours."
"Dear me! What was the matter with "I was asleep. Ta-ta!"

[From Munsey's Weekly.]
He (affianced to the widow)—How embs rassing it will be, when we die, to meet your first husband! The Widow—Possibly, my dear, you and the sainted dead will abide in different regions. That is my hope.

Various Sources.

MADE USEFUL [From Judge.]

"Your father requests me to give you & position in my establishment. You know nothing of commercial transactions; you have a thorough college education, and I see

No Chance to Run Away.

Sipley (to his friend the cashier)-Work ou step out a minute and have something Gripley—Serry, but I can't. See here, the old man makes me wear divers' boots while I'm on duty.

A Natural Inquiry.

The Hen-Great Scott! Did you lay that? The Ostrich (proudly)— The Hen—All at once? An Alien. Tourist (in Kentucky)-I beg pardon, sir:

out what is your name?
Citizen—John Smith.
Tourist—Well, Col. Smith, I—Citizen—Hold on! I'm not a colonel. I moved in here from the North last week. Up to the Times.

[From Good Neser.]

Father (indgnantly)-How doeset happen.

the Chicago Tribinae, "wake me up when you come home and tell me about it,"

And the next morning, as he was walking home, he hastily reviewed the news of the night to put himself in shape.

Simall Son (born under the shadow of Bunker Hill monument)—I guessit's because you ain's a school director any more. His First Experience.

[From Puck.]
District-Attorney—Were you ever called to serve on a jury before?

Talesman—No, sir; this is the first time I was ever taken for a fool in my life. A Centre Shot.

[From Texas Siftings.] "Now, Johnny, if six men can do a piece of work in one day, how long will it take one an to do it ?" asked a New York teacher of a "The school-teacher is a blamed fool if he thinks I can answer that question," whispered Johnny in a low voice to the next boy.

"Speak out, Johnny; I dare say you are right," replied the pedagogue.

> Short and sweet -your hours of labor when you use Pearline: Without Pearl ine, you may work hard and do much; with Pearline you will work less and do more. Pearline saves your clothes in the wash, and your temper in the washing. Is is the continual rub, rub, rubbing, over a washboard in the old way with soap, that wears your clothes and makes hard work. Pearline is the new way, and does away with the rubbing.

It is as safe as it is sure; be sure to get Pearline-nothing else, and you will be safe. Beware of imitations. 242 JAMES PYLE, N.Y.